FALLOW BUCK HUNT – MEDAL TROPHIES

FREE RANGE IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC

OFFER

HUNTING AREA

Fallow buck hunting days will take place in free range covered with mixed forests and large meadows. This part of the Czech Republic, around 40 km from Prague and 120 from Plzen, is well known for hunting adventures since the Middle Ages, it was always one of the best hunting grounds of the Habsburg dynasty who built several castles in this region. The grounds have a good population of fallow deer and strong bucks (with silver and gold medal trophies as well) are hunted during each hunting season. The hunt is organised as a combination of stalking and still hunting from high seats.

HOTEL

Accommodation is in a nice countryside hotel near the hunting area. The hotel is built in the style of a wooden lodge and offers comfortable rooms with TV, WiFi and private bathroom. There is a restaurant in the hotel, which offers dishes of Czech cuisine with local ingredients. The hotel is part of a sports complex and offers tennis and squash camps, bowling and beach volleyball.

A pleasant stay is guaranteed in a beautiful resort hotel about 25-30 minutes drive from the hunting areas. The hotel has 19 rooms (42 beds) with private bathrooms with shower or bath. The windows of the rooms face south and north, with the south side overlooking the beautiful lake and the hotel garden. The rooms are equipped with TV, internet connection, safe, air conditioning, medical mattress, damask bed linen, minibar at a charge, hairdryer, towels and bathrobe. The elegant restaurant offers modern cuisine with a varied daily menu and an extensive a la carte menu. The hotel offers its guests professional wellness services. Allow your body to relax after a hunting day.

VISIT THE CZECH REPUBLIC

Czech Republic is a small European country with incredibly various natural and architectural richness. The lands of Bohemia and Moravia boast over 1200 years of history and the lack of major disasters during the two big wars in the 20th century let the architecture gems well preserved and in towns center you can admire from Roman to Gothic and Baroque styles in incredible largeness.

Prague, the capital city of the country, is the one of the major attractions for tourists from all over the world. The complex of Prague castle, founded in 880 a.C., is the largest castle complex worldwide and it creates the unique panorama of the city. Prague today is a vibrant metropolis that offers cultural and gastronomical satisfaction not only for tourists but also locals and high number of expats settled there.

Apart from Prague there is so much to visit in Czech Republic. The country is divided in the lands of Bohemia, Moravia and Slesia. South Bohemia offers picturesque landside with incredible number of castles and small chateaus. That's thanks to noble families of Rozmberk and Schwarzenberg who had their residence there.

Western Bohemia is the spa area of the country, with the so called spa triangle made by the towns of Karlovy Vary, Mariánské Lázně and Františkovy Lázně.

Southern Moravia on the other hand is the wine land with charming small towns and hills with wine yards.

CZECH GASTRONOMY

Given the central location of the Czech Republic and the fact of being for a long time part of the Austrian Empire, in the local gastronomy you will find some items in common with Austrian and Hungarian cuisine. Typical Czech dishes are usually with meat; roasted duck, svickova (beef steak with bread dumplings and cream sauce) or goulash are a must here. Though Czech Republic is more of a beer country, all the mentioned dishes are well accompanied by a pint of Plzen, local wine production is not to be forgotten at all. Thanks to the climate in Czechia the wine production offers excellent white wines, some of them awarded on prestigious events, such as gold medal for Josef Valihrach from Chardonnay-du-Monde in 2014 and 2020.
