HUNTING SEASON 2020

FALLOW BUCK HUNT

FREE RANGE in THE CZECH REPUBLIC

HUNTING AREA

Fallow buck hunting days occur in free range located proximately to the south-east from Prague in beautiful country mainly covered with mixed forests and meadows. This region of the Czech Republic is well-known for great hunting adventures already since the medieval ages, it was always the one of the best hunting-grounds of the Habsburg dynasty which have built in this area several ancient castles. The hunting grounds boasts good fallow deer population and nice strong fallow bucks, golden medal as well. Hunting days are arranged as combination of stalking and lying in wait (by high seats as well, especially during rut season) and 2 hunting outputs are scheduled (morning and late afternoon) each day. October, during rut season, is the most advisable hunting period if you are looking for nice trophy. Once trophy-fallow buck is done, guest can hunt non-trophy fallow deer and non-trophy roe deer. This hunting area is located approximately 30 km (25 minutes mainly by highway) from Hotel and hunter can use his car during hunting days.
